

World Mission Rosary

In February 1951, while serving as the National Director for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, Bishop Sheen designed the World Mission Rosary. "We must pray, and not for ourselves, but for the world," the Bishop said, "To this end, I have designed the World Mission Rosary. Each of the five decades is of a different color to represent each of the five continents." Bishop Sheen said that praying this Rosary would "aid the Holy Father and his Society for the Propagation of the Faith by supplying him with practical support, as well as prayers, for the poor mission territories of the world."

Each color on the Rosary represents a different area where the Church continues its mission of evangelization:
